

K-Love provides me and my family with an alternative to the over-commercialized, often crude offerings of most radio stations. The need for such solid, family centered broadcasting can't be overstated. If we lose our K-Love translator station, it would leave a huge void. There just aren't enough Christian alternatives on the airwaves today. To lose one as valuable as K-Love would truly be a tragedy. Thank you.

Dan Loman